DURATION: 1 Year, full time - allocation between study and museum work to be agreed

TO APPLY: See application form

APPLICATION CLOSING DATE: Monday 4th July 5pm.

SUMMARY OF POSITION

This is an opportunity to contribute to the work of an exciting project partnership at Campbeltown Museum between the Culture Heritage and Arts Assembly, Argyll and Isles (CHARTS) and liveArgyll. This apprenticeship is supported by Museums Galleries Scotland and Skills Development Scotland.

All project partners invite interest for the new Museums and Galleries Technician Modern Apprenticeship, to be focused on the collection at Campbeltown Museum.

This apprenticeship will be managed by the CHARTS Director, supported by liveArgyll. This will also enable the apprentice to build relationships with other apprentices, through other apprenticeships being run by the CHARTS culture, arts and heritage network, with other partner organisations.

ABOUT CAMPBELTOWN MUSEUM

Campbeltown Museum tells the story of Kintyre through its collection of archaeology, fine art, natural sciences, and social history. Highlights include a Bronze Age jet necklace, a seascape by William McTaggart, a reflector from the Mull of Kintyre lighthouse, and a swooping gannet.

Campbeltown Museum cares for many artworks, these can be viewed via Art UK

FAQs

Who eligible to apply for the qualification?

New or existing staff working in museums, galleries, libraries or archives, who are under the age of 29 and work at least 16 hours a week are eligible to apply.

How long does the qualification take to complete?

The timescale for the completion of the qualification is 12-18 months.

How much time per month does it involve?

It depends but most people benefit from dedicating 6-10 hours a month to their qualification. Learners also will meet with their assessor for one hour per month. The qualification will initially take up more of the learner's time as they get used to way it is assessed but this usually eases up over time. The more learner's put into their qualification the more they get out of it in terms of the skills and experience they develop.

What commitment will CHARTS and liveArgyll give?

Organisations will commit to supporting learners through their qualification including providing them with skills and experiences necessary to complete it. As this is a vocational qualification, learner will have a reasonable amount of time during their working hours to complete their assessments and meet with their assessor. The learner's manager, the CHARTS Director, will also attend quarterly progress meeting with the assessor and learner.

Where could completing the Modern Apprenticeship lead to?

You could carry on your studies with an HNC, HND or by attending university or continue building your career in the heritage sector.

Can people with master's degrees do a Modern Apprenticeship with MGS?

No. Those with Master's degrees would not get as much benefit from completing the qualification as those with an undergraduate degree or no qualifications. In the case of many heritage or museum studies master's programmes, the SVQ in Museums Galleries Practice would replicate what they have already studied.

I am participating in the government's Kickstart Scheme, can I apply?

Unfortunately those undertaking the Kickstart Scheme cannot undertake a Modern Apprenticeship while undertaking their 6 month placement. However, those who undertook a Kickstart placement in the past and are now employed are eligible to apply if they meet the criteria. Employees need to be in post for the duration of the Modern Apprenticeship.
